THE REST OF THE STORY FOR 2014

Within these last three months we rejoice in the Lord's work in the congregation of Mision Bautista Monte Sinai.

We had a couple and their three little boys come to our services on one Sunday in October. This family we had met this past summer when we had our Vacation Bible School in the neighborhoods. Arturo had been saved when he was living and working in Texas, but that day they came to the mission his wife Suzanna trusted Christ as her Savior. They and their boys continue to come to the services. Also there was a teenager named Marco who came with one of the families of our congregation and he too trusted Christ one week later.

In November we had our second annual Thanksgiving dinner at the mission. Our program for the evening was a time of thankfulness. I shared the history of thanksgiving, my wife and I sang a song, and different people gave testimonies of thanksgiving to the Lord. We had a number of visitors with us that were invited by the members.

In December, on Christmas Sunday we had children's choir singing a Christmas song and a drama. We also had preaching and a meal in our evening service.

The mission in Nigromante, being lead by Pastor Juan Pablo Rodriguez, is being blessed by the Lord. The folks are meeting in a house that was vacant. The owner of the house offered to let the mission use the house by only paying for the electricity and water.

Thank you all for your faithful support and prayers. Happy New Year and God's strength for 2015!

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for the congregation of Mission Bautista Monte Sinai to have wisdom and grow in the Lord.
2. Pray for the mission in Nigromante being lead by Pastor Juan Pablo Rodriguez.
3. Pray for our physical and spiritual strength as your missionaries.
