Visitation

Thank you for your prayers for the week of soul winning. We had many good visits with promising results. We thank the Lord for Mardoqueo who has joined with us to help build the work. We have known his family for many years and are glad to have him, he is a soul winner.

Men's conference.

I taught six classes and the Lord blessed us in various ways. Sickness took out a fourth of those who were committed to come and that, of course, was disappointing. The first class started with a horrendous rain storm and no one could hear me but after a few minutes it calmed down and we were able to continue. We didn't have any more hard rain the rest of the week, that is a direct answer to your praying.

Nathan in College, and teaching.

Nathan is enrolled in college by internet at Liberty University. Please pray for Nathan as he begins this next step of his life. He also has been hired full time as a school teacher for the second and fourth grades at a bi-lingual school. He will be leaving home 6:30 am and getting home about 3:30 pm and then will do his studies on internet. He is excited as we are also.

Lena teaching the children and teaching adults how to teach.

Lena is teaching the children in the mission work Sundays and teaching the ladies in a Thursday class. We have some very dedicated ladies.

Flood victims, new housing, need for church building.

If you get our bi-monthly email updates you are aware that we had very bad flooding in Siguatepeque. One of our girls was at a school project and the water was up to her neck. News announced that 500 homes were flooded and 2,000 people were being fed. Our son's church helped feed some of the people. Nathan and Manuel worked with the Red Cross in various areas of need, clothing and such. The president of Honduras flew into Siguatepeque by helicopter to survey the damage and promised to build 50 new homes just a few blocks from our new mission work. Another group has already started building new homes. Please pray that we can get a building up and the mission established to attend this addition to our neighborhood. Pray especially for the money to buy the lot. If you can help please send your offerings to the address below.

The mission work is doing well. We have outgrown the house we are renting and must build a temporary addition to accommodate the growth.

Thank you for praying.

Yours in Christ,
