August 2015

Dear Friends,

It's that time of year again! Kid's Bible Camp! We had Bible Camp out in the village of the national pastor and his family, the Telebars. Around 25 kids came each day. The second day we had a few less because we had some HOT weather for Croatia. But everything went well other than the heat!

Jungle Vines

This year's theme: The Jungle! We had lots of fun preparing for camp this year. We had jungle vines growing everywhere! We even had a photo shoot for our invitations! ↗

I was able to teach the kids ages 5-11, and Pastor Rich was able to teach the teens ages 12-15.

Each day, the kids heard a clear presentation of the gospel during the Bible story, and I explained how the kids could accept Christ, and invited them to ask any questions after the lesson. The seeds were again sown, and now we wait for the harvest. Please pray for the 25 kids who came and heard the gospel. Pray they would have understanding. It can get very confusing when you only hear a couple of time a year that ONLY Jesus saves, and you hear works get you to heaven the majority of the year.

Each day we learned a couple of songs, had a Bible story, played a Bible review game, made a craft, had a snack, and had game time. The kids had bandannas to match their team colors. At the end of the day, they hung up the bandannas with their name tags for the next day.

← We even took silly pictures of the kids for keepsakes.

Here are a few highlights from the week:

← Ljubica (the pastor's wife) trying to erase "sin" from the heart. Only Jesus can wash our sins away. (Dry erase marker erases permanent marker for the visual effect.)

The Bible Review game, and the subsequent giggling from the game. →

← One of our Bible verses for the week.

One of the games: Walking with cups filled with popcorn tied to their feet. It's awful hard not to spill any! ↘ Craft time: Making lion masks to go with our lesson on Daniel and the Lion's Den.

Thank you all so very much for the prayers and support, to help make things like this happen. It takes a lot of time and money to put on a program like this. May God bless you all for being a part of it!

Love from Croatia,
Melissa Houston
