Dear Friends,

It's that time of year again! Preparation time for Kid's Bible Camp.

This year the Brown family (fellow missionaries in Čakovec) will be on furlough in America. They usually help out with the camp. That just leaves the Telebars (the national pastor and his family) and me. Thankfully, a small group from Worth Baptist Church in Fort Worth is coming to help us this year. That just happens to be my home church. I am very excited about them coming. I know the Telebars are very excited as well! This year's Bible Camp is going to be a great one! The theme is "Building Faith" (with LEGOS as the decoration). Please pray for me as I am preparing for the camp, especially the lessons. By the end of this year's camp, most of the kids will have heard a very clear presentation of the gospel 9 times. Most people don't accept Christ after hearing the gospel for the first time. It takes many times. Please pray the kids come to accept Jesus. The seeds are being planted, and that is a special thing.

Please pray for the group coming to help as well. They will be helping with some of the preparations, which is a huge blessing to me. I am praying they will be a great encouragement to the Telebars, also. The church in Čakovec is not doing any better. Continue to lift us all up in your prayers. This city has become more and more cold to the gospel.

The children in the village are much more open though. As children are...tender to the love of God. And they have a very special place in God's heart as we can see in the Bible!

Thank you all for your support! May God bless you all.

In Christ,

Melissa Houston
