

On the Wings of Prayer

"Because thou hast been my help,
therefore in the Shadow of thy wings will I rejoice:" Psalm 63:7

As White As Snow

We woke up this morning to find a blanket of snow covering everything in sight. Upon arriving at the Mission Office, the parking lot, lawn, walks and street were all covered in white. I knew there were red, white and yellow lines painted on the pavement, but they were all covered and white as snow.

"We have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." He paid the penalty for our sins when he died in our place on Calvary, he was buried and he rose again and is alive for evermore. His invitation to the sinner is simple. "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow." In an earthly court, with incomplete and limited evidence, an attorney would not recommend a confession, unless the evidence of guilt is overwhelming. In the Heavenly court, the evidence is unlimited and conclusive. We are all guilty and there is no room for doubt. "There is none righteous, no, not one:" The evidence against us demands a guilty plea and a request for mercy. It is the only wise thing to do. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

There is a world full of people that need to hear from someone, how that their sins can be forgiven. There is no sinner too big for Jesus to save, and no saved sinner that he will not use. That is where we come in. "The field is the world" and it is ripe "already to harvest." Thank you for your prayers and financial gifts toward World Evangelism. Please pray that the LORD will send more laborers into His harvest. And while you pray, keep your ear tuned to hear His call. He may plan to send you.
