

On the Wings of Prayer

"Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings
will I rejoice:" Psalm 63:7

Gathering Saints To God

Psalms 50 is a breath of encouragement in a time of distress. We get bogged down with the many labors and worries that surround us and that encumber our daily lives, as well as, our service to Christ. We need to hear from God afresh. Verse one begins with the declaration that God has spoken. Let us be encouraged, our God has spoken to us and we have heard his voice. His invitation is extended to all, and from Zion, his glorious Salvation has shined forth.

And then in verse five we are given our task. Our task is simply stated "Gather my saints together unto me." True fulfillment in this life is found only in completing this task. It is of divine appointment; it is our calling and only as we join together to fulfill it, we will experience fullness of joy. It is when we do Christ's work, or should it be said, when Christ is working through us, that we experience the fullness of His presence in our lives. God is with those who do his bidding.

"I believe that in each generation God has called enough men and women to evangelize all the yet unreached tribes of the earth. It is not God who does not call. It is man who will not respond!"
