August 15, 2014 – Vacation Bible Schools (VBS)

Dear Praying Friends,

Vacation Bible Schools are very important in the growth of the works, as you can see in this report.

VBS in the Bethesda Baptist Church in McAllen:

We have had 12 saved, 3 baptized and 3 others join the church since our last prayer letter to you.

Our first VBS was a great success. The theme was "Searching For Hidden Treasures" and we had an average of 44 with one saved! Michelle was the director and she did a great job! Joel Sánchez was our invited missionary. He is pictured to the right lifting up the $287.63 love offering that we were able to give him in a competition between boys and girls (the boys won, of course!).

Report of a VBS in Mexico: VBS at Fundamental Baptist Church Jehovah-jireh, where Bro. Omar Meza is pastor, had an average of 60 and 13 saved! Pictured below is Mayra, the pastor's wife teaching a class and the old pick-up they used as a bus. There were 13 VBS's in the works in Mexico this year. We hope to give you a full report of them in our next letter

The C. L. Jones Memorial Missions Fund is going to be sponsoring two churches in Mexico as they get all of their legal paper work done! There are still 6 more works that need help! Thank you for giving!

In Him,
