DARRAIN, DAMARIS, MARI

March-April 2015

As always I want to rejoice in the Lord's work and His blessings to us in these past months. For our "Resurrection Sunday Service" we had a good group of folks. In our service we had the Lord's Supper for the first time and the message focused on the purpose of the Lord's Supper as an ordinance that Christ left for us. It was a personal blessing for me because twenty-one years ago on this day I surrendered my life to serve the Lord in full-time ministry and also to be able to lead the ordinance of the Lord's Supper for the first time.

We rejoice in the four souls that have trusted Christ as Savior in these days. In Mexico on April 30th is "Dia Del Niño" (Children's Day). On a Sunday night we had a service for the children. We had songs, puppets and a Bible lesson. After the service we had nachos, kool-aid, ice cream, cookies, candies, and a piñata. We had the children of our congregation and the congregation from Nigromante; we had a great number of children to minister to and their families.

Please continue to pray for the mission in the neighborhood called Nigromante lead by Pastor Juan Pablo Rodriguez. They continue to go forward for God's glory.

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for the spiritual growth of the congregation of Monte Sinai.
2. Pray for the mission in Nigromante with Pastor Juan Pablo Rodriguez.
3. Pray for us to have wisdom and patience in our personal lives to do God's will.
4. Pray for our physical and spiritual strength.

Thank you all for your prayers and support so the work of the Lord can go forward.

Serving Together,

Darrain, Mari, and Damaris
