

"O HAPPY home where Thou art loved the dearest, You loving Friend, and Saviour of our race, And where among the guests there never cometh one who can hold such a high and honoured place!"

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Praying Friends,

Where to even start with this letter. There is so much to report and only one page to write it on.

Malawi report...

Malawi mission is still going forward. We are praying to God to open doors for us. It has been a year ago since we visited Malawi, but the memories are still alive to our heart. I have been in touch with many friends we met during our trip to Malawi last year, and they are asking when our mission will start? There are many opportunities in Malawi. Easter Birmingham Baptist Chapel is partnering with us to spread the gospel to Malawi. Core Mission also is willing to support our mission to Malawi. There is no doubt our mission has already been a blessing to many.

Prayer request:

1. My son Micah is due for an operation; we are waiting for an appointment to come open.
2. Pray for us to be active. Actively taking the gospel to the world, discipling, and planting Gospel-conducting churches as the Apostle Paul did.
3. Pray for us so God can open the door, so we can travel to the United States of America to raise needed support.
- 4.

Pastor Russell Snoddy of Bethel Baptist Church, Amberst, VA suggest seven ways to pray for a missionary.

- Socially: To be able to connect with whom they are reaching.
- Emotionally: Being away from home.
- Financially: To live proficiently and supply for the work at hand.
- Spiritually: They are ever giving themselves away and need refreshment.
- Physically: No one wants to serve Jesus with the flu.
- Mentally: Focused for Christ.
- Earnestly: They are giving their all, certainly we can pray fervently.

We need this kind of prayer.

Many people are wondering if Jesus cares. The Bible says, "Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you." -1 Peter 5:7

It is important to believe God's Word. The world around us sends a mixed message of love, hate, and fear. God's Word is filled with recordings of healing of thousands, and individuals being lifted out of hopelessness and despair. God's love remains true and consistent. It is not to be taken for granted. Our Lord's act of love is a decision based on John 3:16.

Thank you for all your prayers and support!

All For His Glory,

Breze
