What's New? November 26, 2012

Dear Praying Friends,

Though it is not new year's, we are experiencing "new" things and we wanted to share them with you! The "new" things we will report to you have to do with our ministries both in Mexico and in the Rio Grande Valley.

What Is New In Mexico?

New Missions Conference: Bethesda Fundamental Baptist Church celebrated their annual missions conference in October. We had over 300 every night and on Sunday we had 400! I had the privilege of preaching Faith Promise on Sunday with over $70,000 U.S. dollars promised to missions and 4 new missionaries added to the 79 already supported!

New Converts: On visitation, 19 people were won to the Lord (I was able to win 3 of them personally) and 3 others were saved when I preached on Sunday!

New Members: On Sunday afternoon, Pastor Juan de Dios baptized 5 of the 19 that were saved!

New Man Called To Preach: Jorge Cásares (pictured to the right) was called to preach during the missions conference!

New Pastor's Conference:

I had the privilege of preaching the first annual Pastor's Conference with this year's theme being: "Missions, A World Challenge". Pictured on the left are the 33 pastors and 7 missionaries present during the conference! Please pray that Mexico not only have a missionary vision, but a missionary conviction as well!

What Is New In Rio Grande Valley?

New Work Begins: On Sunday, November 25, 2012, we started our newest work in the home of Maurilio Bautista! We started at 10:30 a.m. with only 10 present, but ended up with 16 (2 children, 5 young people and 9 adults)! Michelle plays a keyboard and one of Maurilio's sons plays guitar, so he will start helping in the music next Sunday!

Please pray for Linda Villarreal (she is Maurilio's daughter-in-law and is the lady in black on the right in the picture to the right). She raised her hand stating that she was not saved. After the services she told Michelle that she could not talk at that moment, but would like to talk to her later on this week!

I made the announcement that we would start taking up offerings next Sunday, but Bro. Maurilio went ahead and gave me his tithe after the services!

Prayer needs: Souls, a place to meet, God's power and wisdom, and a house to live in (we are renting a small RV for the time being).

In Him,

Daniel R. Jones, Sr
