August 22, 2015 - Two stories of failure and success.

II Ti. 2:2: “And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.”

Dear Praying Friends,

We will give a report on two of the three graduates of our 2014 class in this letter, and will have a report of the last graduate in the next letter.

Graduate # 78: Jaime Pulaski

Jaime was saved 3 years before entering the Bethesda Fundamental Baptist Institute of Monterrey (in 2007). His grandfather was Polish who emigrated to Mexico. He was a drug-addict when we first met, and I had the privilege of winning him to the Lord after his children and wife were saved. After baptizing him, we helped him in his rehab through months of counseling with him and during one of those counseling sessions, he told me he wanted to learn more of God's word. So he started in the institute and graduated 4 years later with an average of 79, last in his class, but first in a great change that came to him when coming to know the Lord. He was a babe in Christ when he started, but now leads the family in devotions, is active in the bus ministry and God has used him to be a witness to others, especially those who say they cannot get out of an addiction. The Institute not only gave a diploma, but also a Strong's Concordance to each graduating student.

Graduate # 78: Sergio Arriaga

Sergio came to us already saved (one of the teachers of the Bible Institute won him to the Lord), and then he got baptized and started attending our church. He has had a lot of setbacks in his life, the worst one was when his wife divorced him. He realizes he was mostly at fault for neglecting his wife and children, but even through the long ordeal, he stayed in the Bible Institute and finished with an 89 average, top of his class. He is active in soul-winning and Bible Clubs, and we are thankful that though he lost a lot, he has learned to serve Christ.

Please keep Jaime and Sergio in your prayers as they continue to serve Christ. Pray that many more Bible Institutes will be opened to train others in serving Christ.

C. L. Jones Memorial Fund is only lacking $200.00 to help another church register. Thanks for your help!

In Him,

Daniel L. Jones, Sr.
Gal. 6:9

Received for the Institute in June and July 2015
