June – August 2018

It is a blessing once again to communicate the Lord's work here in central Mexico for this past summer. We had two women and one young boy follow the Lord in believers' baptism. We praise the Lord for their commitment to the Lord in this step of faith. For the first time being here in central Mexico we had a group of ten people come to lead a Vacation Bible School program. The group came from our home church, Worth Baptist in Fort Worth, TX. We had decisions made for salvation among the children and a contact of one lady named Jessica who attended the last day of VBS with her children. We had a great time of serving and sightseeing with our church family for the week they were here. Pastor Tyler Gillit came on the weekend and preached for us on the following Sunday. We had folks hear a clear gospel message with the seed of God's Word planted in their hearts! Afterwards we had a feast of Mexican tacos! One teenager named Abdiel in our congregation went to church camp with a sister church and he came back giving testimony of God's blessings. It was a blessing to help him along with his parents to send him to youth camp. Finishing up the summer we had a sister church in Celaya, Guanajuato come to be with us one Saturday to have a day of evangelism in our town. There were twenty-four folks with their Youth Pastor leading the way for this day. We went door to door in two different neighborhoods. There were decisions for salvation and many tracts shared with the people here in San Miguel de Allende. That evening in an opened theater in one of the neighborhoods where we went witnessing that morning the young people did a drama presentation of salvation, played instruments with singing, and gave a message of salvation to all those that attended. There were decisions made for salvation so pray they will grow in their new faith.

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for the spiritual growth of the congregation, Mision Bautista Monte Sinai.
2. Pray for the Bible class with the children on Thursdays @ 4pm in a small community (El Rancho Viejo, The Old Ranch) outside of town.
3. Pray for Pastor Juan Pablo Rodriguez and the congregation in the neighborhood called Nigromonte.
4. Pray for the folks that were saved this summer that we can follow up to help them grow in their new faith.
5. Pray for our physical and spiritual strength as a family.

Thank you all for your faithful prayers and financial support; you all have a part in the Lord's work here in central Mexico!
