Delight
thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee
the desires of thine heart. Ps. 37:4

October, 2024

Thanks, be unto the Lord, for each of you!

8 VISITORS. A tremendous opportunity two weeks ago when I was asked if nine men could find a house to stay in for a couple nights while they attended a conference. They were from a Christian group. There are no houses in Siguatepeque for that use and since they were poor, they couldn't rent a motel. I opened my house up to them to sleep on mattresses on the floor. I did not know them, but suspected they might not be saved; so, I prayed about witnessing to them when given a chance. Seven were unsaved and several accepted the Lord and one re-dedication to the Lord.

THE WELL wasn't producing water because of the worn-out pump and digging it out deeper to accommodate the new pump. This is a hand dug well, so it took some weeks to do the work. It was a challenge to have water for nine men without a good water source. I also encountered a large expense that I wasn't prepared for.

EXTRA CLASS REQUEST. We started a Bible study on Monday nights, and it has gone very well. Thank the Lord for new opportunities to teach and train leaders.

REMEMBERED LENA'S PASSING TO HEAVEN. A year has gone by since Lena's passing. Thank you for all your prayers and concerns. You can imagine it has been a challenge. I sure miss Lena.

HELPING THE POOR. The church and I are helping one needy family a month with groceries. This ministry has been blessed and the children are seeing God at work.

WITNESSING to two ladies, giving out Bibles. These ladies are being witnessed to several times a week with expectations they will soon receive the Lord. One man also who is interested but not committed. He is studying with me.

MEDICAL TEAM. The sixteenth of November I will be going out with another medical team. Two years ago, we witnessed to nine hundred people and won one hundred and three souls. Please pray we can do this year as well.

Yours in Christ,

Harold and Lena Priday
