A MARVELOUS START TO A NEW YEAR

Reaching communities with Marvin y Jenny

A couple going out from the mission on Saturday's are sharing the gospel giving out tracts. To those who will read the Bible, a Bible is given them to read. We thank the Lord for the Bibles donated by a church, and Libros the John and Romans provided by another church also tracts were available to give to each person met in the street. Two were saved the first time out. We are taking young people with us next time.

BIBLE GROUP GROWING.

It is very exciting to see our Bible group growing as we teach the book of John in depth. It started with one and now has 10. In two weeks, we will have an exam and give out diplomas to those who are faithful in the study.

Family gathering and grandson Halbert's celebration

My grandson Halbert came to visit for sixteen days. Leslie and I had a wonderful time with him. Halbert just graduated from the university with a bachelor's in business leadership, and is an assistant manager for a large company store in Dallas, Texas. We celebrated his graduation at Leslie's house with about fifty family members. They were from his mother's family and a few friends. God's blessing was felt in the reunion.

CHURCH FAMILY COMMITMENT TO GROW AND MATURE.

In a special service for the new year each one of the mission work stood and declared that their prayer and desire for the Lord is to grow stronger and be of more service to Jesus. We are already seeing wonderful results.

We continue to pray for one strong, Christian family to join the mission work.

Yours in Christ,

Harold and Lena Priday
