

Church Property Update

Dear Friends,

Good afternoon! I hope that your Sunday services were encouraging and God-honoring! The services at ABC were special, and I had great times of prayer with several of our people for this property opportunity.

As of this morning we have been promised $60,000 by several churches to aid in our financial endeavor to raise $200,000 (per the investors' request). Early this afternoon, I was able to have a phone meeting with the investors, and they were encouraged by the funds raised so far. They were willing to go ahead and get the finances over to the realtor to be able to get an official offer put in to the seller by Thursday or Friday of this week (which was their deadline)! PRAISE GOD!

I am still waiting to hear from several churches as to what amount their people were able or willing to give, but we are excited and continuing to pray for the Lord to move specifically in this time. Please be in prayer that the low offer will be accepted, and that the rest of the finances will come through. I have been so encouraged by everyone's prayers and support! Thank you for your faithfulness to the Lord and the personal encouragement you have been to me in this ministry!
