

Becky Wambsganss
Missionary - Retired

July 16, 2020

Dear Pastors and church,

You are all well aware that Leon, my husband, passed on to his reward on March 30th. I was hospitalized on the 31st for one week with the virus also. Since I was healthier, my outcome was much better than his. The week I was hospitalized, he was buried without funeral, burial service or anything. Our sons and my brothers, against the rules, went to the cemetery anyway and at least were present. I'm sure some in your congregation have had the same experience as we have had. I received many sympathy cards but one email I received was outstanding and you can share it if you want. It was from Jan, a friend of my sister Nancy, and I quote:

Psalm 116:15 - "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His godly ones." God the Father is pleased to welcome His children when they arrive Home.

Acts 7:26 - Behold I see..the Son of Man standing at the Right Hand of God." This is the only place in the New Testament that the ascended Jesus is STANDING and it is to receive a saint coming Home. (Stephen)

Ephesians 1:13,14 - "...you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of Promise..." God the Spirit guarantees the saint's arrival in heaven.

And finally, from the story of Lazarus and the rich man, we learn that angels escort the saints Home. (Luke 16:22)

So here is something to ponder. When your precious loved one died, angels accompanied him, the Son rose to greet him, the Father welcomed him, the Spirit guaranteed his arrival.

What a beautiful picture of what is waiting for the saints. I appreciate the donations you have faithfully sent and I know it is a sacrifice for many. Once again, if you need the funds sent my way to fund a new missionary or help a current missionary, please do so. The Lord has been so good to me and provided all I need. I feel so blessed and cherished by my Father as He has shown his kindness and love all through this time of trial. Nothing can come into our lives that is not first filtered through His fingers of Love. Psalm 18:30, "As for God, His way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried (proves true): he is a buckler to all those who trust Him."

Thank you for your prayers and I pray for all of you during this difficult season. Pray for revival in our Land and that the church of the Lord Jesus Christ would be faithful and valiant. Pray for our children and grand children and they face difficulties we never imagined. Praise God, He is faithful!

Looking for His soon return,

Becky Wambsganss