

The God of Our Service

Jerry Siler
IBFI President

Who do we serve? Which God do we serve? Buddha? Mohammed? Ashtoreth? Mary? Who is our God? Who is the God of our service?

The Creator of Genesis. The I Am of Exodus. The Law Giver of Leviticus. The Serpent on the Pole in Numbers. The Lord's Prophet in Deuteronomy. The Captain of the Lord's Host in Joshua. The Angel of the Lord in Judges. Israel's Kinsman Redeemer in Ruth. Hannah's Petition Giver in I Samuel. The One Who anointed David to be King of Israel in II Samuel. The Object of Solomon's prayer at the temple dedication in I Kings. The God of Elijah and Elisha in II Kings. The God of King Solomon in I Chronicles. The God of Solomon's temple in II Chronicles. The God of the returning exiles from Babylon in Ezra. The God of wall building in Nehemiah. The Queen's God in Esther. The Living Redeemer in Job. The Shepherd of David in Psalms. Solomon's Giver of wisdom in Proverbs. The preacher's God in Ecclesiastes. The Beloved in Song of Solomon. The Lamb brought to the slaughter in Isaiah. The Answer to prophetic prayer in Jeremiah. The God of new mercies each morning in Lamentations. The God of a vision of glory in Ezekiel. The Stone that crushed the image of Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel. The Forgiving Savior of Israel in Hosea. The Doer of great things in Joel. The Fair Justice in Amos. The Destroyer of Edom in Obadiah. The Fisherman Who caused a great fish to swallow His backslidden prophet in Jonah. The God Who required Israel to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with Him in Micah. The God Who is jealous, slow to anger and of great power in Nahum. The God Who calls His followers to live by faith in Habakkuk. The God Who called Israel to turn from her wicked ways in Zephaniah. The God Who called Israel to serve Him as the true and living God in Haggai. The Keeper of His promises to all generations in Zechariah. The Promise of a Messiah through a messenger in Malachi.

Who is God? What is His name? What is His purpose? Who is the God of our service?

In Matthew, He is Jesus, the Messiah. In Mark, He is the Servant. In Luke, He is the compassionate Son of God. In the gospel of John, He is the Son of God and Savior of the world. In Acts, He is the God of the church. In Romans, He is the God that declares the believing sinner righteous based upon the work of Christ on the cross. In I & II Corinthians, He is the God of purity and unity.

Which God should we serve? Which God should we follow? In Galatians, He is the One Who presents salvation by grace through faith. The God of Ephesians accepts us by grace through faith with no merit of our own. Our God in Philippians has highly exalted His Son and given Him a name above every name. The God of creation and preeminence is the God of Paul's letter to the Colossians. Jesus is the God Who is coming back in Thessalonians. He's the Mediator between God and men in I Timothy, and the Righteous Judge in II Timothy.

He is the Great God of the blessed hope in Titus, and the God Who brought grace to a runaway slave in Philemon. He is the God above the angels in Hebrews, and a God to draw nigh to in James. The One Who shed His precious blood and became the Chief Cornerstone is God in the epistles of Peter. He is the God Who came to us in the flesh, forgives our sin when confessed to Him, and leads us to do good according to John's three epistles.

He is the only wise God concluded by Jesus' half brother, Jude. And John, the revelator, tells us that He is the One Who loved us enough to wash us from our iniquity and secure us a place in His Book of Life in Revelation.

What a mighty God we serve!

Maintaining the Proper Balance in the Pastoral Ministry

The call to the ministry is the greatest and highest of all callings. No man "puts" himself into the ministry. The true minister of the gospel is called and placed in the ministry by God Himself. Reference the testimony of the Apostle Paul in I Timothy 1:12: "And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry." Notice who did the "putting": Not Paul, but Jesus. When Jesus puts a man in the ministry, He puts him in to stay. At the same time, He gives him a message, a mandate, and a mission.

How to Maintain Your Balance

After being in the ministry more than sixty-three years, I feel somewhat qualified to offer the following things that will help any pastor to maintain the proper balance in his God-called ministry:

1. Be sure your calling is God, rather than an emotional impulse – I Timothy 1:11, 12.
2. Be sure you meet the God-given, divinely inspired qualifications of a pastor – I Timothy 3:1-7.
3. Be sure you establish the proper relationship with your people – Galatians 4:15.

4. Be sure you understand the primary purpose of your ministry – II Timothy 4:1-8.

5. Be sure you budget your time – Ephesians 5:16.

6. Be sure you devote ample time to the study of the Bible and to the reading of the good books – II Timothy 2:25.

(I have found that reading the biographies of great men of faith to be most profitable in my ministry. Men such as

J. Frank Norris, D. L. Moody, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, Sam Jones, Billy Sunday, M. F. Ham – to name a few)

7. Be sure you stay on track in your preaching program – II Corinthians 4:5

8. Be sure you maintain proper pastoral conduct– I Timothy 3:2, 3.

9. Be sure you keep your eyes on the goal – Philippians 3:13.

10. Be sure you are crucified with Christ – Galatians 2:20,

11. Be sure you glory only in the cross – Galatians 6:14.

12. Be sure you maintain a burden for the lost– Romans 10:1.

Failures keep you humble,

Success keeps you glowing,

But only God can keep you going.

Self-examination (based on Psalm 39)

An effective way to assist you in maintaining the proper balance is to practice "self-examination":

- Examine your MOUTH – Psalm 39:1.
- Examine your HEART – Psalm 39:3.
- Examine your LIFE – Psalm 39:5.
- Examine your HOPE – Psalm 39:7.
- Examine your PRAYER – Psalm 39:12, 13.

Sorrows keep you human,
Failures keep you humble,
Success keeps you glowing,
But only God can keep you going.

Preacher, just how balanced are you? On a scale of 1-10, how would you grade yourself?

CHAPEL SERVICES

Chapel services will be held at the NBBS on a daily basis i.e.

will have the opportunity to preach in chapel. In addition, one chapel service each week will have one of our alumni challenge the students. The two remaining chapel services each week will be filled with local pastors, missionaries, and full-time workers.

FACULTY AND STUDENT SCHEDULING

Currently, we are in process of scheduling our students and selecting our faculty. One of the strengths of the NBBS is that our faculty will be selected from local pastors who are already on "the firing line," and who can give our students not only a body of knowledge in a particular course, but practical teaching from their experiences in the ministry; in other words, no "ivory tower" approach!

NEW WEBSITE

To check our new website, please go to ibfi.us and click on the link for NBBS. It will give you information about NBBS - curriculum, registration, etc.

In closing, continue to pray for our needs: new students, finances, and faculty.

ALUMNI NEWS

Glen Anderson
Alumni President

Wow! What an exciting May fellowship meeting! It was a blessing and an encouragement to see so many of our alumni attend the meeting. It was great to see some that I had not seen in a while and catch up on what the Lord is doing in their ministries. It thrills me, and I know that it must also thrill the hearts of those who invested their lives in the lives of Norris Bible Baptist alumni.

As I listened to those men who were instrumental in founding the IBFI share their hearts with us, it was a reminder of the price they all paid to take a stand. May we as alumni, who have benefited from their sacrifices, always be thankful and mindful of what has been done by these great men of God on our behalf!

Dear Brethren,

We are looking forward with "Great Expectations" to the fall fellowship meeting of the Independent Baptist Fellowship International scheduled for October 14-16, 2014. Our people are honored to host this meeting, and have a desire to be a blessing to all who will be in attendance. We have been planning, preparing, and praying for this meeting. It is our wish to display true "southern hospitality."

We look forward to seeing you this fall at Maranatha Baptist Church in Columbus, Georgia, for this great time of fellowship and encouragement. If we can be of any assistance to you for anything, please do not hesitate to call our church office (706-323-9538). "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from Him." - Psalm 62:5

In His Service,
Mark Brown

It is wonderful to see our alumni taking an active part in serving in the IBFI as officers and board members. It is exciting to listen to them as they share their hearts and thoughts concerning our fellowship and what they would like to see in the future.

I want to commend and thank Bro. Terry Terry and Bro. Eric Crawford, two of our alumni, for the excellent job they did in organizing, hosting, and preparing the fish fry on Tuesday evening. That was an excellent meal and the fish was some of the best tasting fish I have ever eaten. Well done, Guys!! I want to also thank Bro. Paul King and his church for the excellent side dishes they prepared. It was all good!

I am excitedly looking forward to our October meeting which will be hosted by alumnus Bro. Mark Brown and the good people of Maranatha Baptist Church in Columbus, Georgia. Bro Mark and his people have done an outstanding job of hosting our meetings in the past, and I am sure they will do so once again. I hope that our alumni will once again make a special effort to attend the October fellowship meeting. I look forward to seeing everyone and enjoying some great fellowship!
